FAMILY PRIDE CELEBRATION DANCE

FEATURING "SECOND WIND"

SECOND WIND'S PATTIE AND RITA

DATE: Friday, June 18, 1993
PLACE: YWCA
1722 L Street, Sacramento
TIME: From 8 p.m.
TICKETS: $ 8 Subscribers
$ 13 Non-Subscribers
$ 15 At the Door

SECOND WIND, known as the best dance band in the Lesbian and Gay Community, will be performing at the FAMILY PRIDE CELEBRATION DANCE on Friday, June 18, 1993, from 8 p.m. at the YWCA, 1722 L Street in Sacramento. Co-sponsored by Sacramento Area Career Women's Network (SACWN) and Sacramento Lesbians Creating Change (SLCC), the dance is open to all men and women in the community.

SECOND WIND is a two woman band that plays great dance music. They recently appeared at the Annual Convention for Women in Medicine, held to coincide with the March on Washington.

Pattie and Rita both sing lead with smooth and flowing harmonies. Rita plays the drums and guitar while Pattie plays synthesizer. They perform 50s, 60s, current Top 40 and Rock and Pop tunes with a touch of Country, too.

Using a Micro Composer (musical computer) the arrangements are written into the computer and assigned to several synthesizers. The resulting sound is that of a five piece band. Smashing sound and high energy performers, Second Wind will provide for a great night of dancing to begin the Freedom Celebration Weekend.

A MESSAGE FROM THE STEERING COMMITTEE

These are very difficult times for many of us. While we are aware of the impact of the local economy on our individual lives, that impact is demonstrated in a different manner in the interactions of SACWN. Renewals are later, more people are using the "two payment plan" and fewer people are attending events. So this seems like a good time to talk about what we can do for each other.

From the phone calls to the SACWN office, we know that employment and under-employment are a major concern for us now. We hear from people new to the community looking for work and from people feeling stuck in their present positions. So, SACWN, for the next six months, will offer free classified ads for subscribers seeking employment or an employee. The first 20 words will be free, after 20 words the usual rate will apply. Ads must be submitted in writing by the 15th of the month, and prepaid (if over 20 words.)

We will also laud your accomplishments or feature your business in our monthly "SUCCESSFUL SACWNITE" column. Let us help you increase your business by providing visibility to a select and interested group of customers.

SACWN, through the newsletter and upcoming Membership Directory, also offers a very reasonable advertising package to promote your product or services. Call the office for details.

And SACWN offers you a safe, fun place to be who you are, to nurture that core part of your being and to participate in lesbian culture and education. Wonderful performers, speakers, authors and great activities will inspire your pride in being a lesbian.

In return, SACWN needs your participation, feedback, ideas and support. Be an active part of SACWN through participating in the Special Interest Groups, and in the networking at meetings. Help SACWN set a tone of friendliness, warmth and mutual support by reaching out to new members and extending a welcome at the events.

Volunteer at the SACWN booth at the Freedom Fair and at the dance on the night before the Fair. Twelve "workers" are needed for an hour shift at the dance (in exchange for free admission to the SACWN/SLCC dance.) Ask about the volunteer position of SIG Facilitator, a vital function within the organization that needs your special talents.

List your name in the upcoming Membership Directory. Provide a way for the networking to grow. The directory is provided free to each SACWN member and to new members. It is sold only at SACWN functions, and has a very specialized circulation. It is used frequently by SACWN members for direct mailings. It's a valuable resource to identify a lesbian in a particular line of work (more networking!) The value of the directory increases in direct relationship to the number of listings it contains. Return the enclosed form today.

And in the spirit of networking, it has been our pleasure over the past months to work with SLCC to co-sponsor our June dance event. Special thanks to Sharon Liberatore, Alanne Whitaker and our Joan Thissell for their contributions.

SPECIAL INTEREST GROUPS - - JUNE

The Special Interest Groups (SIGs) of SACWN are a wonderful way to meet new people and make new friends. SACWN is pleased to support the volunteers who facilitate these groups. Many hours are donated by the facilitators in speaking with prospective members and organizing the events. When you call to get involved, be sure to thank them for their generous contribution to our community.

We are seeking a liaison between the SIG facilitators and the SACWN steering committee. If you are interested in discussing this role and coordinating the SIGs, please call Rosy at 447-7255.

BRIDGE

The Bridge Group now has a beginner's game meeting weekly. Lessons and practice games are available for complete beginners as well as novices who wish to hone their skills. Call Kathy Mullen (362-3175) to be put in touch with the Beginner's Night hostess.

Since many players have expressed an interest in a variety of new playing scenarios (a beginner's table, a no-notes table, a stay with one partner day, etc.) the hostess officially will be free to choose any format she desires. If there is a particular format you'd like to try, volunteer to hostess and it's yours. The June dates are Friday the 4th and Sunday the 27th. Locations to be announced.

SINGLE CONNECTION

These wonderful women are having such fun. This month's potluck will be June 5th at Maxine's House, 5284 G Street in Sacramento. Call Lesha at 676-0641.

LATE-BLOOMERS

Come out, come out, where ever you are! Spring has sprung and everything is in bloom, including many wonderful women experiencing new and powerful growth. If you are 25+ and curious about your new found love for women, come join us for support, a time to sort out thoughts and feelings and socialization. Call Eva 878-9253 for June meeting date and time.

TOP TEN

This is a group for women over 50 and women who love women over 50. Join us for our June event. Call Lise, 452-4948 for more details.

HIKING

It is spring time in the mountains ! Join us on June 12th. Let's see how far we can get up into the mountains. We are eager to see the forests again. Call Karen for details, 753-6670

RAINBOW CAMPERS

The Cajun Festival at Napa was terrific. We are looking forward to a wonderful summer of camping trips. Please join us for the following:

6/12-13 The Beach, Dillon or Wrights
7/1-5 Mt. Shasta/Lake Siskiyou
7/23-25 Women's Gathering Camp Augusta, Grass Valley
8/13-15 Nevada Beach, Lake Tahoe
9/2-6 Women's Music Festival
9/17-19 Coloma
10/1-3 Bullards Bar

For more information, Call Jayne at 921-6642.

NEWCOMERS

If you are new to Sacramento, come meet others who are new, too! We meet on the 3rd Sunday of every month for dinner to discuss SACWN, its special interest groups, and other resources available to the gay/lesbian community of Sacramento. For more information call Nancy, 454-5847.

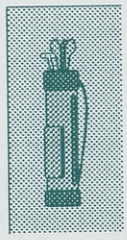
HOME REMODELING HOME REPAIR

Sunday June 20th is the day to meet and learn how and when to get a building permit. Call Lesha, 1-676-0641 for time and location.

INTO ART!

Artist - Need some support? Feeling isolated? Want to talk with someone who really understands? Let's get together. Call Carmen at 455-9253.

Editor's Note: My apologies for the wrong phone number last month for the artist's group. Truly sorry.



GOLF

We are starting our season of play and great companionship. Thursday is our day . Give Judy a call 428-4685 to find out the details.

SUCCESSFUL SACWNITE

Ellie Charlton remembers when a small group of women got together for lunch and discussed forming a lesbian networking group. That group became SACWN and Ellie and her partner Jeanne Barnett have been members since the beginning.

Although they currently live in San Francisco, they attend SACWN events when their very busy schedules allow. In town last month for the May meeting, Ellie and Jeanne stopped at the SACWN office to share the excitement in their lives.

Both Jeanne and Ellie retired last year, Jeanne having spent 32 years in state service. While dreams of travel and unrestricted free time were tempting, Jeanne and Ellie recently chose to take a short two year detour from the retirement road of leisure.

Jeanne and Ellie have been active in the United Methodist Church most of their lives. They are leaders at a national, regional and local level in working to include gay and lesbian people in active participation in the church. When an opportunity to serve the church by participating in the administration of a capitol funds campaign became available, Jeanne and Ellie couldn't say no.

So off to San Francisco they went to work, serve and enjoy the wonders of "the City". Retirement to Jeanne meant time to do "what I want to do" and that is exactly how they are approaching this new phase in their lives. They are going to plays, taking in the sights, and recently enjoyed sipping tea in the Japanese tea garden while the cherry blossoms were in full bloom. Ellie found the booth on Union Square that sells theater tickets for the same evening at half price and they walk to the theater from their high rise apartment. On free days, Ellie likes to take a bus to the end of the line and explore a neighborhood within the city.

Jeanne calls her new position, "a wonderful learning experience" and quite a change from state service. "Before with the state, I would tell a technician where to install a computer terminal to access a mainframe. On my first day on the job, I opened a box and started from scratch to learn how to assemble and operate a personal computer."

What do they miss about Sacramento? The trees, the open sky, local friends and says Jeanne, "We can't go to all the King's home games on our season tickets (which they have had for 8 years)." When their commitments to the campaign drive end, they still plan to "go on the road". Ellie yearns to see Alaska, Jeanne has Europe high on her list of choices. Touring the northwestern states in 1996 is a definite plan that they both agree on.

For now, their travel revolves around their work with the church including serving with Affirmation: United Methodists for Lesbian, Gay and BiSexual Concerns, Jeanne's role as chair of the California-Nevada Reconciling Conference Committee (working to include gay and lesbian people in all aspects of the church) and Ellie's tasks as Chair of the California/Nevada Annual Conference Commission on the Status and Role of Women.

What does success mean to our SACWNites, Jeanne and Ellie? Jeanne's response was simple and profound. "Success is living a good life". For Ellie, the key to success is to "Do what you enjoy doing and get paid for it!"

SACWN SAYS . . .

ESSENCE - was the message Dr. Sadja Greenwood gave to SACWN subscribers at the May meeting. Her presentation on Menopause and the aging process was a once in a lifetime opportunity to ask a caring, knowledgeable physician every question you could think of about our bodies and how they are changing. And essence? It stands for Greenwood's formula for health: E - eat right; S - include supplements in your diet, especially calcium and vitamins C, D and E; S- self esteem, keep it strong; E - exercise, especially aerobic and muscle building exercises; N - no smoking; C - creativity, do what you have avoided, be who you are! E - ESSENCE

NETWORKING ORGANIZATIONALLY - Planning the June dance has been a collaborative effort including many organizations. In exchange for an ad for the dance in the Freedom Fair program, SACWN and SLCC will be selling raffle tickets for the Lambda Center's Lesbian Domestic Violence project. Started with assistance of Weave, trained volunteers are available to assist lesbians in an abusive relationship. Stop by the table at the dance for your tickets. The raffle will be held Saturday at the fair.

Also, the Sacramento Men's Chorus will be holding a concert on the same evening, Friday June 18, as our dance. Attend both events and each ticket will be $1 off. Tickets for the concert are available at the Gifted Gardener.

SACWN BOOTH AT THE LAMBDA FAIR - Help needed, please. Come visit the SACWN booth and stay an hour. Talk with other Fair goers about SACWN, our events, how to join. Sell SACWN T-shirts, and network while you are there. Bring your business cards to update our files. About 10 cards fit perfectly in our " HUB Notebook".

COMING OUT LATE? SACWN subscriber, Susan Chandler, a lecturer in the Division of Social Work at CSUS, is interested in contacting "lesbians who unfolded after 35". Susan, herself a late-bloomer, is studying the process of discovery of one's lesbianism. She promises confidentiality in exchange for an hour interview. Her hope is to affirm the diversity in our coming out processes and support women who are recognizing their woman identities. Call Susan at 278-1761 or 737-7539.

SACRAMENTO LESBIAN AND GAY TOWN COUNCIL - Many projects are underway. There is a new phone number to report "hate crimes" - 863-3775. A conference is in the planning, as is a proposal to include "bi-sexual" in the group's title and focus.

JOHN LAIRD, former mayor of Santa Cruz, former two-term council member of Santa Cruz and an "out" gay man is running for the State Assembly. He appears to have a good chance of winning and becoming California's first (out) gay assemblymember. Even though he's not from this area, if he wins, his leadership could impact us all. Helping him win would be an investment in our future.

JUNE/JULY ISSUE - Note - this is a two month issue. SACWN will not be publishing a newsletter in July. Come join us at the first annual Sacramento Women's Gathering for fun and adventure!
